UNITED STATES' UNOPPOSED MOTION TO EXTEND DISCOVERY DEADLINE

Plaintiff United States of America, by its attorneys, hereby moves for a 91-day extension of the discovery deadline to August 4, 2003, on the following basis:

The attorney for the United States and the attorney for defendant Lois Darland are attempting to arrive at an agreed resolution of the amount of Lois Darland's income tax liabilities for the years at issue. We are advised by Lois Darland's attorney that although she has obtained some bank records to use for the preparation of her returns, she has not yet been able to obtain all the records requested from the bank. The additional time is needed to obtain all the bank records requested, to complete the preparation of the returns and for the government to review the returns.

The attorney for defendant Lois Darland has authorized us to advise the Court that defendant Lois Darland concurs with the requested extension of the discovery deadline.

A proposed Order extending the discovery deadline as requested and the other deadlines on the Scheduling Order accordingly is attached.

Respectfully submitted,
